

Rothco Police Cut Resistant Lined Gloves

Rothco’s Cut Resistant Lined Police Gloves are meticulously designed to offer the ultimate protection and dexterity for law enforcement professionals. The exterior shell, crafted from genuine cowhide leather, ensures both durability and flexibility, allowing officers to perform their duties effectively. Inside, the gloves feature a cut-resistant aramid fabric lining, providing superior protection against cuts and abrasions. The shirred elastic band contours snugly around the wrist, ensuring a secure and comfortable fit. Despite the enhanced protection, these gloves retain the fine tactile skills necessary for operating equipment, making them ideal for shooting, driving, and other general tasks. Rothco’s gloves are perfect for police officers, security guards, and other law enforcement officials who require reliable hand protection without compromising on performance.
